hereinafter referred to as the "Counterparty", hereinafter jointly referred to as the "Parties" and each of them individually as the "Party".

Whereas the Parties declare their intention to cooperate within the scope of (specify the subject matter of cooperation) (hereinafter referred to as the "Project"), in connection with which the Counterparty may gain access to Confidential Information constituting a particularly significant value for the Company, the Parties have agreed as follows:

1. Whenever the Agreement refers to confidential information (hereinafter: "Confidential Information"), it shall be understood to mean any information or data concerning the Company's activities, in particular personal data or organizational, financial, legal, business, technical information, including information concerning the scope of cooperation, know-how or other information of economic value, as well as information obtained as a result of the analysis or processing of the information provided, regardless of the manner of its disclosure to a third party who is a contractor or who acts on behalf of the Company (including in writing, orally or by any other means).

2. The classification of information as Confidential Information under this Agreement does not require that it be marked "Confidential Information" or with any other symbol or indication, nor does it require that the Company reserve its confidentiality or take any measures to protect it.

3. The following shall not be considered Confidential Information:

- information or data which is or has become a part of public domain otherwise than as a result of a breach of the present Agreement or applicable law;
- information or data which will be disclosed by the Counterparty upon the prior written consent of the Company;
- information or data which the Counterparty would be obliged to disclose under mandatory provisions of law, in which case the Counterparty shall immediately notify the Company thereof.

1. The Counterparty shall undertake all measures necessary to maintain the confidentiality of the Confidential Information, and in particular it shall:

- keep the Confidential Information in confidence and protect it using the same standard of care that it applies to protect its own business secrets;
- not disclose the Confidential Information to any unauthorized persons, including any third parties, nor to the employees or business associates of the Counterparty, any entities affiliated with the Counterparty or its representatives who are not directly involved in the implementation of the Project;
- take all actions, in particular by giving appropriate instructions regarding the handling of Confidential Information to the Counterparty's employees and business associates, affiliated entities of the Counterparty or its representatives; the Counterparty shall be liable for the acts or omissions of such persons as for their own acts or omissions;
- not use Confidential Information in any manner whatsoever, in particular in the Counterparty's business activities;
- not copy, record or reproduce any Confidential Information acquired by the Counterparty in any manner whatsoever for purposes other than those connected with the performance of this Agreement.

2. The Counterparty undertakes that in the event of cooperation with third parties in the performance of services under agreements concluded between the Parties, the agreements with third parties and the rules of cooperation shall also impose an obligation on third parties to keep Confidential Information referred to in § 1 of this Agreement secret with at least the same level of protection as provided for in this Agreement.

3. The Counterparty shall notify the Company immediately, however no later than within one calendar day, of any breach of their confidentiality obligation under this Agreement.

1. This Agreement shall enter into force on the date on which it is executed by the Parties.

2. The confidentiality obligation related to the Confidential Information pertaining to the Client shall be binding for the period of 5 years from the date of signing the Agreement and shall also apply to information obtained by the Counterparty prior to concluding this Agreement in the course of negotiations conducted between the Parties within the scope of cooperation.

3. In particularly justified cases, such as _____ it is possible to extend the period stipulated in Section 2 of this Article by 3 years since the moment of terminating the Agreement.

1. The Parties acknowledge that a breach of this Agreement by the Counterparty may cause irreparable damage or damage for which monetary compensation will not be fully sufficient, and therefore the Company shall be entitled to seek injunctive relief as well as any other remedy.

2. A breach of the confidentiality obligation rules concerning Confidential Information hereunder shall also be deemed to have been committed if committed by any entity with a personal or capital relationship with the Counterparty, including in particular the Counterparty's employees and business associates.

1. The Parties agree that communications relating to the performance of this Agreement shall be made in writing or by e-mail to the following addresses:

a. for VIGO Photonics S.A.:

- address: ul. Poznańska 129/133, 085-850 Ożarów Mazowiecki;
- contact person:.....;
- contact person's e-mail address:.....;

b. for the Counterparty:

- address:.....;
- contact person:.....;
- contact person's e-mail address:.....;

1. The Parties shall endeavor to resolve amicably any disputes arising in the course of and in connection with the performance of this Agreement.

2. In the event the application of Section 1 of the present Article is not possible or has not led to the expected results, any disputes arising in the course of and in connection with the performance of this Agreement shall be settled exclusively by the Polish common court having jurisdiction over the registered office of the Company.

3. This Agreement shall be governed by Polish law.

§7

1. Confidential Information shall remain the sole property of the Company. Disclosure of Confidential Information to the Counterparty shall not imply any rights in the Confidential Information other than the right to use it in accordance with the present Agreement.

2. This Agreement concerns the use and non-disclosure of Confidential Information; sharing of the Information between the Company and the Counterparty does not entail the establishment of a business relationship nor shall it be construed as granting any right or license or establishing any relationship between the Parties.

3. Amendments to the provisions of the Agreement shall be made in writing under the penalty of nullity.

4. If any provision of the Agreement is found by a competent court to be invalid or unenforceable, the Agreement, together with all other provisions, will remain in full force and effect as if that invalid or unenforceable provision had never been part of the Agreement.

5. The present Agreement has been drawn up in two counterparts, one for each of the Parties.
